

TABLE OF CONTENTS

About the Author

Introduction

How Venture Capitalists Think

- Techies versus Bean-Counters
- Doing Due Diligence
- A Losing Proposition
- The Control Freak Myth

Top Ten Mistakes Made by Entrepreneurs

Mistake # 1: Poorly Drafted Business Plan

Mistake # 2: Not Knowing the Market

Mistake # 3: Focusing on the Flash, not the Substance

Mistake # 4: Underestimating Money and Time Needed

Mistake # 5: Incomplete or Weak Management Team

- Importance of Having Competent Outside Advisors
- The Founder's Commitment

Mistake # 6: No Vesting Schedule

Mistake # 7: The Intellectual Property and the Company Are Not Protected

- Restrictive Covenants Are Not Used
- The Value of Compromise
- Considering the Market
- Risk and Reward
- The Quantity of Quality Time
- The Value of Ideas

Mistake # 8: Overvaluation of the Company

Mistake # 9: Not Choosing Investors Wisely

Mistake # 10: Being in It for the Wrong Reasons

Setting Out on the Money Trail

Enlisting Intermediaries

- Is a Referral from an Attorney or CPA Necessary?

Know Your Investor!

- Financial Investor or Strategic Investor?

Determining the Reasons a Plan was Rejected

Additional Tips for Working with Venture Capitalists

- Be nice!
- Be responsive!
- Be fair and civil during negotiations.
- Remember that everything is negotiable up to a point.
- Be creative.

Conclusion